Doglaw Seminar Programme

This seminar is a wide-ranging mix of legal issues that are important to dog owners, including responsibilities when buying and selling dogs, liability (both civil and criminal) for dogs that harm people and animals and much more.

Topics are likely to include:-

- Stray Dogs
- Microchipping and Collar & Tag
- Dangerous dogs (including dogs that are dangerous to people)
- Breed Specific Legislation
- Dog Control Orders/Public Spaces Protection Orders
- Community Protection Notices
- Noise Nuisance
- Duty of care and cruelty under the Animal Welfare Act
- Buying and selling dogs
- Ownership of dogs
- Civil liability for the actions of your dog

The seminar is expected to last 3-3½ hours. Content is liable to change.

The Presenter

Trevor Cooper

Trevor has specialised in Doglaw for 23 years and is widely regarded as a leading solicitor in England and Wales for this niche area of law both civil and criminal cases. Trevor started his career in local government and has acted for the prosecution (having been a Principal Solicitor with the Environment Agency for 5 years) as well as the defence - he was also a Magistrate on the North Yorkshire bench.

Trevor was formally the Doglaw specialist for Dogs Trust and currently splits his time acting as the Doglaw Consultant for Battersea Dogs & Cats Home as well as continuing to act for dog owners, as well as dog related professionals and organisations in both civil and criminal proceedings.
